

Steve Turner Williams Scholarship Application

Southwest Region Conference of Seventh-day Adventists

P.O. Box 226289 | Dallas, TX 75222 | (214) 943-4491 | www.southwestregionsda.org

The Steve Turner Williams Scholarship was established in honor of Steve Turner Williams, a devoted educator and community leader whose life was defined by a deep commitment to service and positive impact. Throughout his career, Steve consistently demonstrated an unwavering dedication to enhancing the lives of others, often working behind the scenes to support local initiatives and to mentor youth. His passion for helping those within the community left a lasting legacy that is sure to inspire future generations. This $500 scholarship was created to honor Steve's values of community involvement, compassionate service to humanity, and transformational leadership.

Who May Apply?

The Steve Turner Williams Scholarship was established for students who:

- will be enrolled in a college/university as a Sophomore, Junior, or Senior in Spring 2026,
- have a minimum GPA of 2.5, and
- have at least 30 documented hours in active community service.

Application Process

Please complete the entire application in English. Only completed and legible applications will be considered; do not leave any item blank.

The deadline to submit an application and all supporting documents is October 31, 2025. Please enclose the following along with your application:
